

CARTAGENA FOODIE HOLIDAY

Indulge in all the flavours of this tropical seafood paradise + surprises

Start off each exciting day with a trip to the local market and other shopping areas where we discover new tastes and a coastal experience from the angle of the people who live and work here in Cartagena. Selecting the natural foods in the raw and original form. Each day we learn from master chefs and restaurant owners who instruct us to create a new and exciting local Colombian dish to the delight of our palates. We learn a different meal; breakfast, lunch and dinner. And then of course the best part of sitting down and devouring the dish with wine, beer, liquor and tropical juices, or relaxing and absorbing each and every flavour, one by one. Whichever you wish! On days and times we are not in class we venture out to the cities best and most well respected restaurants. This package includes accommodation and daily breakfast.
