

CARTAGENA PHOTO HOLIDAY

A Photographers Dream Come True in Cartagena de Indias

Subjects, lighting, scenery, nature all mixed to create the best photo ops in one area. Explore our historically beautiful city and create a project from your daily shots along side our other photographers and professional. We will visit unique locations during all different times of the day and night to get the best effects possible. By the end of your holiday you will have created an unimaginable portfolio of authentic images with the creative art direction of our mastermind group. Imagine a memory you can keep forever and share with your friends and family. We are grateful to have one of the most unique locations in the Americas to have this opportunity to make your portfolio come true. Half photography school and half adventure. A tour/holiday you will always remember with love and passion.
